Is Lloyd George's Supposed Victory Unwelcome in England?

The despatches from England seem to indicate that Mr. LLOYD GEORGE, whose triumphant announcement that be tried in London was made only a few days ago, is now regarded in much the same way as a cat that has proves to be quite unwelcome.

States can maintain a "splendid isola-tion" which will keep us out of future wars. The great war from which we are now emerging shows the magnitude of this illusion.
We were not drawn into the world our traditional policy of isolation but failed, for the reason that America has grown so great in material, moral and political influence and is now such a vital factor in the family of nations that no great war involving the leading Powers of the world can take place without involving the United States inevitably in the conflict Thus does Mr. McAdoo completely re verse the reasoning of President Wilson in 1914, when the latter unqualifiedly

Special Despatch to Tan Sun.

Mount Clemens, Mich., July 7.—The Ford-Chicago Tribune million dollar Ilibel suit entered its ninth week this morning. Tiffany Blake, chief editorial writer of the Tribune, resumed the stand. He declared the Tribune's one stitude toward Ford, toward Mexico, toward the National Administration and toward all the European belligerents was one of square-toed Americanlam. He said:

WASHINGTON, July 7.—The air pressure is high and rising over the great lakes, the middle Atlantic and Now England States and in the far Northwest, and la low off Cape Hatteras and over the plains States and the Hocky Mountain region. During the isst testiny-four heurs there were showers and in the Guif States. Colorado, nerthern Arizona, North Dakota and Minnesota. Fair weather was general in other regions. Normal temperatures for this date prevail generally over the United States. The outlook is for generally fair weather during Tussday and Wednesday in the States east of the Misslapping River, except that local thundershowers are probable in the south Atlantic, east Guif States and upper Michigan. Moderate temperatures will continue generally east of the Mississippi River during the next forty-eight hours.
